Joseph R. Nevotti Ph.D., Q.M.E.

Licensed Psychologist
Qualified Medical Evaluator
Bellingham, Washington
360.531.3254 • jn5289@yahoo.com.com

EXPERTISE

- Diagnosis and Treatment of substance abuse, depression, PSTD and anxiety disorders using EMDR, Cognitive Behavior Therapy, & Psychotropic Medication.

- Forensic Evaluation & Testimony regarding Competency, Diminished Capacity, Insanity, Future Dangerousness, and Pre-Sentencing.

- Qualified Medical Evaluations of injured workers pursuant to California Labor Code 3208.3, and the laws and regulations governing the California Workers' Compensation System;

- Independent Medical Evaluations of psychiatric patients suffering from schizophrenia, mood disorders, PTSD, cognitive impairment, substance abuse and personality disorders using MMPI-3, Beck Inventories, Shipley-2, SDMT, WMS-R, WASI, SIRS-2, & TOMM.

- Violence Risk Assessments of Sex Offenders and Life Term inmates up for parole using state-of-the art assessment tools (Static-99R, Stable-2007, LS/CMI, PCL-R, VIP).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Private Practice   Forensic Psychologist   2009-Present
- Psychological evaluations and treatment of trauma (PTSD) survivors;
- Treatment of substance abuse and trauma disorders using EMDR, ACT and psych meds;
- Psychological evaluations and expert testimony regarding Competency, Diminished Capacity, Insanity, Future Dangerousness and Pre-sentencing in Pierce, King, Island, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason and Clallam Counties in Washington State.
- Qualified Medical Evaluator conducting workers' compensation evaluations pursuant to California Labor Code;
- Parole Suitability Evaluations of life-term inmates regarding violence risk and suitability for parole using LS/CMI & PCL-R.

Coalinga State Hospital   Contract Psychologist   2007-2008
Solution-focused treatment as well as forensic evaluations of Sexually Violent Predators (SVPs) using state-of-the art actuarial rating scales (e.g. STATIC-99R, STABLE-2007, PCL-R) within guidelines of state law (WIC 6600).

California Department of Corrections   Contract Psychologist   2002-2007

- Criminal forensic evaluations of life-term inmates being considered for parole emphasizing violence risk assessment using state-of-the art actuarial rating methods (e.g. LSI-R, PCL-R);
- Case management of 1,800+ psychiatric patients in California state prisons;
- Interdisciplinary treatment of emotionally disturbed inmates at all levels of care (GAF range: 25 to 80) and all levels of custody (minimum to violent anti-socials & psychopaths) in accordance with federal mandates;
- Suicide risk assessment and crisis management of severely emotionally disturbed inmates in two prison infirmaries.

Nevotti Consultants   Consulting Psychologist   1972-2001
- Provided psychological assessment, career counseling and performance coaching for several thousand "high functioning" employees in Fortune 500 organizations including AT&T, Chevron, Booz Allen & Hamilton, Data General, Foster-Wheeler, and GTE;
- Performed in excess of 5,500 psychological assessments of executives and professionals for small and large organizations;
- Established valid, legally defensible personnel selection systems for Booz, Allen & Hamilton, and Chevron to enable them to hire successful professionals, improve performance and reduce costs;
- Provided management development and performance improvement for companies in high tech, insurance, manufacturing, and petroleum industries;
- Taught graduate level courses at The University of Texas, The University of Dallas (MBA Program), San Francisco State University, and Alliant University. Consistently rated a top instructor.

EDUCATION
Ph.D., Psychology, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma, 1974
M.A., Organizational Psychology, University of Nebraska, Omaha, Nebraska, 1970
B.G.S., Psychology, Omaha University, Omaha, Nebraska, 1967

LICENSURE
Licensed Psychologist in Washington, California, Massachusetts, and Texas
Qualified Medical Evaluator (California)

1965-1971-- United States Marine Corps. Honorably Discharged, Sergeant.